

Pakistan

Overall Risk Score: 65

Risk Level: high

This score is a composite of the four domain scores discussed below, which are weighted and combined to produce the overall country risk score. Each country is given a score from 1 to 100 for each domain and for the total bribery risk. A higher score indicates a higher risk of business bribery. Assessments of whether a given domain score is “good” or “poor” are made relative to all other jurisdictions within that domain.

1. Business Interactions with Government: Pakistan receives a poor score of 65 in this domain, based on a medium degree of government interaction, a high expectation of bribes, and a high regulatory burden.
2. Anti-bribery Deterrence and Enforcement: Pakistan receives a poor score of 66 in this domain, based on a medium quality of anti-bribery dissuasion and a low quality of anti-bribery enforcement.
3. Government and Civil Service Transparency: Pakistan receives a poor score of 79 in this domain, based on poor governmental transparency and very poor transparency of financial interests.
4. Capacity for Civil Society Oversight: Pakistan receives a medium score of 49 in this domain, based on a medium degree of media freedom/quality and a medium degree of civil society engagement.
