

Equatorial Guinea

Overall Risk Score: 87

Risk Level: very high

This score is a composite of the four domain scores discussed below, which are weighted and combined to produce the overall country risk score. Each country is given a score from 1 to 100 for each domain and for the total bribery risk. A higher score indicates a higher risk of business bribery. Assessments of whether a given domain score is “good” or “poor” are made relative to all other jurisdictions within that domain.

1. Business Interactions with Government: Equatorial Guinea receives a very poor score of 93 in this domain, based on a very high degree of government interaction and a high expectation of bribes.
2. Anti-bribery Deterrence and Enforcement: Equatorial Guinea receives a very poor score of 96 in this domain, based on a very low quality of anti-bribery dissuasion and a very low quality of anti-bribery enforcement.
3. Government and Civil Service Transparency: Equatorial Guinea receives a very poor score of 87 in this domain, based on very poor governmental transparency and very poor transparency of financial interests.
4. Capacity for Civil Society Oversight: Equatorial Guinea receives a very poor score of 72 in this domain, based on a low degree of media freedom/quality and a very low degree of civil society engagement.
