Iran

Overall Risk Score: 75

Risk Level: high

This score is a composite of the four domain scores discussed below, which are weighted and combined to produce the overall country risk score. Each country is given a score from 1 to 100 for each domain and for the total bribery risk. A higher score indicates a higher risk of business bribery. Assessments of whether a given domain score is “good” or “poor” are made relative to all other jurisdictions within that domain.

1. Business Interactions with Government: Iran receives a poor score of 81 in this domain, based on a high degree of government interaction, a high expectation of bribes, and a very high regulatory burden.

2. Anti-bribery Deterrence and Enforcement: Iran receives a poor score of 75 in this domain, based on a medium quality of anti-bribery dissuasion and a very low quality of anti-bribery enforcement.

4. Capacity for Civil Society Oversight: Iran receives a very poor score of 73 in this domain, based on a low degree of media freedom/quality and a very low degree of civil society engagement.
