

Chad

Overall Risk Score: 72

Risk Level: high

This score is a composite of the four domain scores discussed below, which are weighted and combined to produce the overall country risk score. Each country is given a score from 1 to 100 for each domain and for the total bribery risk. A higher score indicates a higher risk of business bribery. Assessments of whether a given domain score is “good” or “poor” are made relative to all other jurisdictions within that domain.

1. Business Interactions with Government: Chad receives a poor score of 62 in this domain, based on a low degree of government interaction, a very high expectation of bribes, and a medium regulatory burden.
2. Anti-bribery Deterrence and Enforcement: Chad receives a very poor score of 87 in this domain, based on a very low quality of anti-bribery dissuasion and a very low quality of anti-bribery enforcement.
3. Government and Civil Service Transparency: Chad receives a very poor score of 90 in this domain, based on very poor governmental transparency and very poor transparency of financial interests.
4. Capacity for Civil Society Oversight: Chad receives a poor score of 60 in this domain, based on a low degree of media freedom/quality and a low degree of civil society engagement.
